For Collective Worship this week, we looked at diversity and Universal Children's Day as part of our theme for Friendship Week. We talked about how we are all the same on the inside and that judging others by their colour, gender, nationality or faith is unacceptable. We considered what rights children all across the world are entitled to and how many do not have access to this entitlement.

This is just a little reminder that school dinners need to be booked online in advance via Parentpay. We cannot provide a meal if this is not completed. If your child is currently on FSM, we do still need you to book your child's school dinner so that the kitchen know how many children are coming in for dinner, however you will not be charged.

PTFA

On Friday 27th November, children can come into school wearing their own clothes for a donation of Christmas food and drink, so that the PTFA can make up hampers for the Christmas raffle.
