What a disappointment- tier 3, we really do hope this hasn't impacted on you all too much, fingers crossed that on the 16th December we will be allowed out for good behaviour! Speaking of which, you should all be so very proud of your children, who are a delight and who are definitely keeping us going through these unprecedented times. Let's hope we can put a little sparkle into the next few weeks leading up to Christmas.

Have a great weekend. Mrs Seal and Mrs Bell.

This week in Worship, we talked about the importance of sharing with others. We considered how we could share more and thought about Solomon's words in Proverbs 22:9 and the story of "Feeding the Five Thousand" (John 6:1-14.) We thought about how we couldn't just say we would help others, we actually had to show it. Through listening to the story of Michael Faraday, we learnt about how he dedicated his life to learning about science, and how he allowed this to be shared with all, so that everyone could benefit from his discoveries.

'My children, our love should not just be words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action.' 1 John 3:18
