

Instruction Puzzles

10 Below are three sets of instructions that have had some
18 important words replaced. Can you work out what
23 they're instructing you to do?

Puzzle One

25 Take the long, bristled stick.
30 Put the thick paste on the end.
37 Move the stick around your mouth.
43 Spit neatly into the bowl.
48

Puzzle Two

50 Hold the two wriggly lines.
55 Cross them over one another.
60 Loop them through each other.
65 Loop them through each other.
70 Pull the wriggly lines tightly.

Puzzle Three

72 Hook the long line onto the beast.
79 Pat the beast on its head.
85 Leave your home with the beast.
91
100 When you reach an open space, release the beast.

Questions

1. Pat the beast on its head.

Write another word that could replace the word beast.

---

2. What do you think that puzzle one is instructing you to do?

---

3. What should you do after moving the stick around your mouth?

---

4. Imagine that you are the author.

Write an instruction puzzle for catching a ball.

---

---

---

---

Instruction Puzzles

10 Below are three sets of instructions that have had some
18 important words replaced. Can you work out what
23 they're instructing you to do?

Puzzle One

25 Take the long, bristled stick.
30 Put the thick paste on the end.
37 Move the stick around your mouth.
43 Spit neatly into the bowl.
48

Puzzle Two

50 Hold the two wriggly lines.
55 Cross them over one another.
60 Loop them through each other.
65 Loop them through each other.
70 Pull the wriggly lines tightly.

Puzzle Three

72 Hook the long line onto the beast.
79 Pat the beast on its head.
85 Leave your home with the beast.
91
100 When you reach an open space, release the beast.

Answers: brushing your teeth; tying your shoelaces; walking a dog.

Questions

1. Pat the beast on its head.
Write another word that could replace the word beast.
Accept any sensible suggestion, such as: animal; creature; critter; dog.

2. What do you think that puzzle one is instructing you to do?
Accept any sensible answer, such as: I think that puzzle one is instructing you to brush your teeth.

3. What should you do after moving the stick around your mouth?
After moving the stick around your mouth, you should spit neatly into the bowl.

4. Imagine that you are the author.
Write an instruction puzzle for catching a ball.
Pupils' own responses, such as: Put your hands together. Move them towards the round, flying object. Grab the object. Cheer loudly.